ADVISOR

Mrs. Jane Faggart

Time has many faces. Always changing, always moving — nothing ever stays exactly the same. This uncontrollable force brings us happiness, pain, success and failure.

Like a portion of our cover, life has been fairly smooth for most of us. But, maturing as we go, we must journey further down the pathway of life which may not be so smooth. Whether we are sophomores, juniors, seniors, teachers, administrators, or whether we work in other capacities, we must cross the obstacles in our way and face the challenges.

We should endeavor to do something with our lives, so that, just as Southerner is stamped on our cover, so may we leave some impress on the paths of time.

It is the hope of the yearbook staff that this twentieth edition of the Southerner will recall those things that have made 1980-1981 the best year ever.

Now that is an interesting subject!

Up! one, two, three . . .

All together now, slide.

What did you say?

Administration

At South we try, despite the problems of society, to produce a miraculous blend of care, discipline, energy, learning, and imagination that good teaching requires.

We are faced with changing standards, techniques, and procedures which we try, but sometimes we must resort to basic skills. As principal of South, I will strive to keep up with changing times, to make our school a place where students can learn and achieve, and thus to feel good about themselves.

1981 Who's Who

To become a member of South Rowan's Who's Who, a student must be a senior who has shown an outgoing personality, dependability, good character, average or above scholarship, service and loyalty to the school, and participation.

Students meeting these qualifications were nominated by the entire faculty, and then selected by a special faculty committee consisting of club advisors, coaches, guidance personel, senior teachers, and cultural arts teachers. To be chosen, the student had to receive at least one-third of the votes returned.

It is an honor to be among the Who's Who of South Rowan. Congratulations to the fourteen seniors who were chosen to the 1980-81 Who's Who.

A very valuable three-year veteran of the football team, Tommy Barnhardt also played baseball, participated in the band program, and took part in the Interact and Spanish Clubs.

One of the busiest seniors, Jim Barringer was active in the Interact, Math, Spanish, and VICA clubs, as well as in the NHS. In addition he played football, served as a class officer, in SGA, and as Co-Chief marshal. Jim was also a Morehead nominee and a SPEC participant.

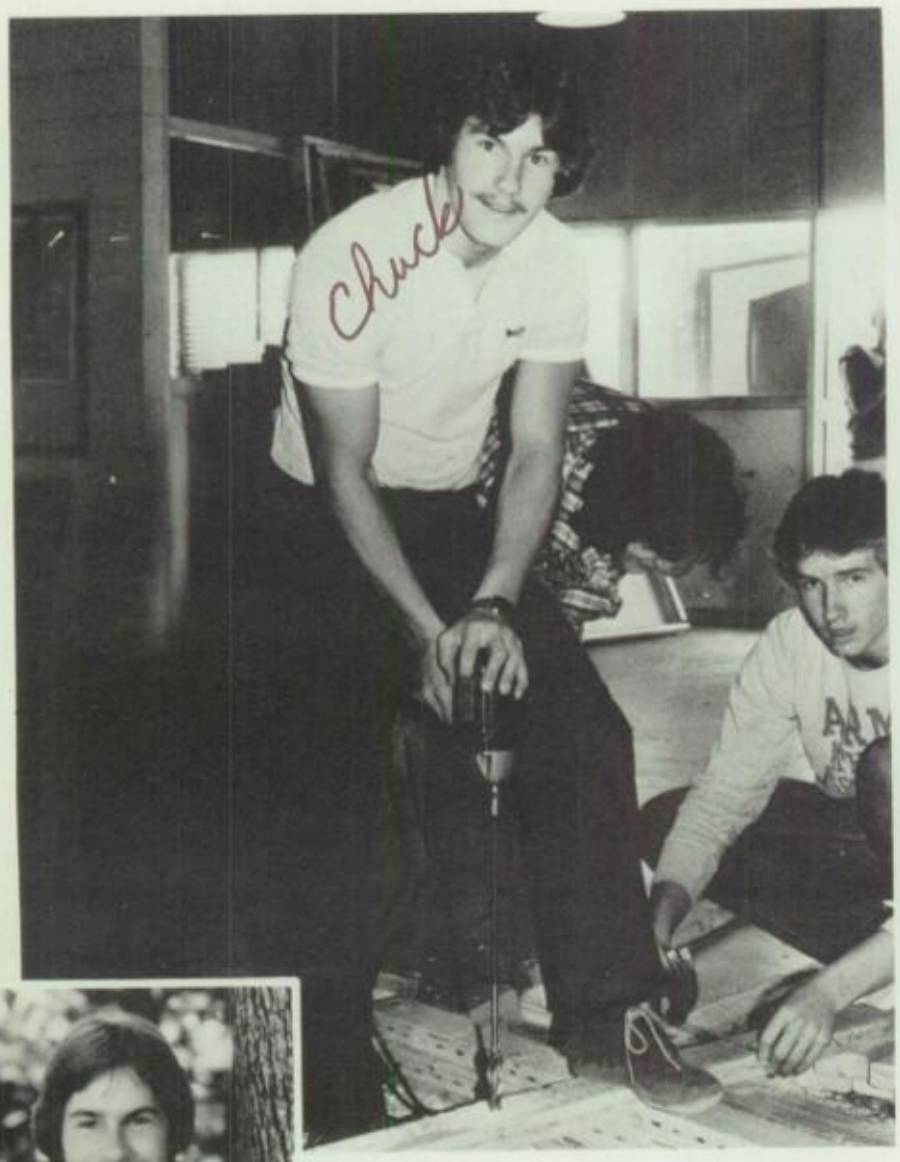
Lindsay Beaver, chief cheerleader, served South in many other ways. Her outgoing personality was responsible for her being chosen to the Homecoming Court and as a Miss Merry Christmas Contestant. She was active in the Interact, Math, and French clubs, NHS, and SGA. She was also a member of the musical cast and of the Journalism Staff.

Well-known for her musical ability and her poetry, Arlis Campbell enhanced her talents by participating in several choral music programs. She was active in the sports program also as a member of the Track & Cross Country teams. In addition, Arlis took part in the Cultural Arts, Anchor, Interact, and French Clubs and in SPEC.

As President of SGA, Alan Deal's "Have a nice day" became a familiar phrase. Serving in an executive position took most of his time during the senior year, but during the other years, Alan was active in the FFA, served as a class officer, and was a member of the wrestling team.

Dependability, enthusiasm, and perserverance are only a few of the traits of Amie Goodman. As an officer and member of numerous clubs, she has shown her unending sense of loyalty. An outstanding member of the band program and SGA, Amie was chosen as DAR Good Citizen, a Morehead nominee, a commencement marshal, and SPEC participant.

Faculty Nominates Students for Who's Who



Chuck Jacobs has been a vital member of the Interact and VICA clubs and of the NHS. In addition, he played football for three years, took part in the SGA for three years, attended Boys' State, and served as a commencement marshal.

A two-year member of the Homecoming Court and a Miss Merry Christmas Contestant, Melanie Karriker also served as lettergirl and participated in other band programs. She was a valuable member of the Anchor, Bible, Interact, Business, & Spanish clubs, and of the NHS. She served as a class officer and participated in SPEC.

Winner of the Math, Chemistry, and Danforth awards, Steve Leonard was also chosen for Governor's School, a Morehead nominee, and a marshal. Moreover, he was an active member of the NHS, the Science, Math, Spanish, and Octagon Clubs, and of the SGA. In addition to these, Steve was a valuable member of the Cross Country and Track teams.

Debbie Lottes was selected as one month's Outstanding Youth. She was an active member of the Interact, Business, and French Clubs, V.-President of the NHS, and was a Miss Merry Christmas contestant. She also served as a member of the SGA and a class officer.

Miss Homecoming, Jill McKinney, is known for her smile and cooperative spirit. An enthusiastic member of the Anchor, Interact, HOSA Clubs and of SGA, Jill also served as a Flag Girl. She was also a very dependable member of the Journalism Staff.

A three-year veteran of the band, Mike Smith also participated in golf and basketball. He was a member of the Interact and French Clubs and of the NHS. In November, the Octagon Club selected Mike as its Optimist-of-the-Month.

An accomplished pianist, Sherri Stocks has been a member of three choral groups for three years. In addition to participating in the Miss Merry Christmas contest, Sherri was also a NHS member, a member of the Interact, Math, and Spanish Clubs, and a SGA executive officer.

Faculty Committee Selects Who's Who

"The road of life winds on, we know not where.
We cannot see the far-off mystic goal,
But still we follow on, each struggling soul
Striving to reach the clearer higher air.
And there the secret lies, for just to strive
Is in itself the meaning of the way;
The cloudy pillar guiding us by day,
The flame by night, is that deep, inward drive;
Even in dreams the purpose labors on,
So that we wake with strength and hope renewed,
To take the road again till day be done,
Meeting each obstacle with fortitude.
The goal we may not see, but this we know,
That only by our striving will we grow."
— Muriel Brewster

Conscientious and dependable, Cindy Wagoner has been a loyal member of the Interact, Business, and Math Clubs for three years and of the Anchor Club and NHS for two years. She was also chosen as a commencement marshal.

Finalists: Beth Blackburn, Donna Whitley, Wendy Martin (Queen), Lindsay Beaver, Arlis Campbell

South Rowan's annual Miss Merry Christmas Pageant, held November 20, was the highlight of the American Education Week activities. The pageant, sponsored by the SGA, had Gary Craig, the morning personality for WBT, as Master of Ceremonies. Entertainment was provided by Michael Ramseur, Beth Baker, the Drama Club, and the outgoing queen, Lori Johnson.

In order to become a contestant, a girl had to be a member of the Senior Class and she also had to audition her talent. This year's contest consisted of fifteen contestants who were judged in sportswear, evening gown,and on talent. Judges included Mrs. Teresa Lambert, Mrs. Kay Corriher, Mrs. Hilda Beaver, Mr. James Lloyd and Mr. Gerald Rush.

As South's nineteenth Queen, Wendy Martin represented the school in parades in Kannapolis, Salisbury, China Grove, and Cleveland.

Inspire
Raider Pride

Cheerleading, like any other sport, requires long hours of practice, determination, coordination, sportsmanship, and above all, school spirit. Much of a cheerleader's time is spent coordinating cheers and stunts and thinking of creative ways to show support for our varsity athletes. Cheerleaders have a special responsibility in that they are the chief promotors of school spirit. They must always represent South in a most respectable way.

Even when the chips are down, they have to keep smiling. They have to keep clapping, jumping, and cheering the team on. No varsity cheerleader will easily forget the times when they had little to cheer about.

The 1980-81 varsity squad, advised by Mrs. Poole and Mrs. Ingold, was instrumental to the winning seasons experienced by our varsity teams.

Cross Country Team Runs For SPC Championship

The Cross Country team enjoyed its first conference title this year after just organizing three years ago. The team was led by the spectacular long distance running ability of Reed Simmons. The Raiders are proud of their Cross Country team and are looking forward to accepting many more championship titles from this special group of dedicated athletes.

The Raider runners were coached by Mr. Bill Cranfield, Guidance Counselor at South, who also coached a successful wrestling team. The Raider Cross Country team will seek to keep its title and never lose it to another SPC school. The determination and dedication of this team could very well make this possible next year.

Wrestling involves skill, determination, a positive attitude, and perserverance. Many hours of practice and the sacrifice of holiday time for tournaments are involved.

Our wrestling team posted a winning season again this year. Included in their wins were three tournaments over the Christmas holidays — the Pfeiffer Invitational, East Rowan Invitational, and the Albemarle Invitational.

The success of the team was due to the advice of Coach Cranfield and the amount of hard work and practice done individually. Conditioning was stressed so that wrestlers would be able to endure the matches. Vigorous exercises and the learning of new techniques were emphasized throughout the season.

Anchors Visit Rest Home

The Anchor Club, one of South's service clubs, has been very active this year. During the month of November, as part of American Education Week, members treated the teachers. Also during that month the girls visited the China Grove Rest Home where they entertained the residents, served refreshments, and delivered small favors to the residents. Members sold carnations at Valentine and then delivered them. Various programs were held for the meetings.

Bible Club Goes to State Retreat

The Bible Club of South Rowan, organized this year, was very unique. Instead of having officers, the Bible Club had an executive committee consisting of ten students and the advisor who drew up the constitution and made plans for the year's activities. Projects included visiting nursing homes, children's homes, the Mental Health Clinic, and home-bound people. Members sang and had times of fellowship during the monthly meetings. The club also took a trip to the State Bible Club Retreat in the spring.

The Future Farmers of America was again the backbone of South Rowan. Being one of the biggest clubs on campus, it symbolized our purpose in being a rural school and brought out a little country in all of us.

The FFA has decorated our award case with countless numbers of awards. Our appreciation is extended to their advisor, Mr. Miller, whose determination and perserverence is that of a true leader.

Among the numerous projects of the club were the sale of fruit and participation in many contests and in the national FFA convention.

The Spanish Club has always been a very active and enthusiastic club at South Rowan. All students of Spanish are invited to become members. Members participated in programs, cooked and enjoyed Spanish foods, and studied many cultural arts of the Spanish speaking people. This year the club sponsored a boy through the Christian Children's Fund. By sponsoring this child, the club showed love. It was also a learning experience for the students as they wrote and received letters in Spanish. During Foreign Language Week, members put up posters and honored the faculty in special ways.

Members were selected by the advisor on the basis of leadership, interest in community affairs, and an overall optimistic viewpoint. Some of the activities included choosing an Optimist-of-the-Month, setting up for the voting in the November election in rural Rowan county, contributing to Youth Appreciation Week, Law Week, and United Nations Day. In addition, members served as announcers for Raider Hour on WRNA.

On a memorable June evening, 286 seniors marched across the football field to receive their diplomas. Mrs. Jane Faggart presented the seniors while Mr. James Donnell and Mr. Jerry Pless awarded the diplomas.

Traditional valedictory and salutatory speeches were given by honor graduates, Karen Blume and Debra Kluttz. Patti Castor and Tim Seaboch, also honor graduates, gave the Invocation and Benediction and introduced the speaker respectively. The South Rowan Mixed Chorus sang "You'll Never Walk Alone" and "A Parting Blessing."

The Reverend John Woodard of Wittenberg Lutheran Church, Granite Quarry, addressed the graduates. His topic was "What Is The Rest Of Your Story Going To Be?"

Fashion Show — 1980

"In the mood for 1980" was the theme of the fashion show held on April 23, 1980. The show began with a musical overture which set the mood for scene one entitled "B-Boppers." "Moon Watchers" was the theme for scene two, "Head Toppers," scene three, "Show Stoppers," scene four, and "Name Droppers," scene five. The theme was enhanced by the 1950's tunes played during the show. Sponsoring the event were Brooks, Mitchell's Tuxedo and In Gear of Carolina Mall; Mr. Jeans of Landis and Bryan's of Mooresville. The guest commentator was Rosilee Brown. The show planned and coordinated by Mrs. Drye was a complete success.

As the faces of time continue to pass, many challenges have been presented and some have been met. This year has been filled with successes and failures, but we have endured and stood firmly and met them with determination. We have learned that nothing stays the same — time is always moving, always changing.

This twentieth edition of The Southerner has attempted to capture this mood and to preserve for you some of the memories of 1980-81. All of this would not have been possible without the cooperation, help, and support of the following groups and individuals:

Mr. Donnell and faculty
Prestige Photography (Herb Eaton, Inc.)
Terry Pardew Photography
Countryside Photography
Mr. Bob Chappell
Hunter Publishing Company

To these and to the entire student body, we, the Journalism Staff, express our thanks and appreciation. Each of you has left some impress on the path of 1980-81.
